

A number of stakeholders responded that they were already accessing the AQEW reports on the report web-site instead of from within the Market Participant Interface (MPI). Stakeholders also said that there would be no impact upon their business processes if the reports were available only on the reports web-site. Accordingly, the IESO is moving forward with the elimination of the AQEW reports published on the MPI as of Baseline 17.0 in March 2007.