Dispute Resolution: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li data-bbox="889 323 1511 716">o We remain concerned that a 20 business days-period to dispute a determination does not leave enough time for market participants to properly prepare a response. Information gathering and fact checking between various departments take time. In other words, MACD should not publish determinations until the expiry of the dispute resolution period. <li data-bbox="792 1079 1511 1352">- On Confidential Information disclosure: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li data-bbox="889 1117 1511 1352">o We appreciate the improvements proposed by the IESO. Nevertheless, we request that the IESO publish the draft Compliance and Enforcement Guidance Document for review and comments, and this prior to the Technical Panel’s deliberation.
