Subject: Transmission Rights Clearing Account Market Rule Amendment Package Posted on Technical Panel Webpage

Good morning,

Materials for the June 23 Technical Panel (TP) are now posted to the Technical Panel webpage. These materials include a delay in the effective date of the proposed Market Rule amendment from November 2020 to May 2021. This change was made to balance differing stakeholder perspectives that are reflected in feedback received throughout this stakeholder engagement process. There will be an opportunity to further discuss this proposal and the stakeholder engagement of this initiative at the June 23 Technical Panel meeting where the IESO will seek approval from the Panel to vote to recommend these rule amendments to the IESO Board for consideration.

If you have any questions, please email engagement@ieso.ca.

Regards,

Dale Fitzgerald
