Following the April 24, 2024 engagement webinar, the Independent Electricity System Operator (IESO) is seeking feedback from Indigenous communities and stakeholders on the items discussed during the webinar. The webinar presentation and recording can be accessed from the engagement web page.

Please submit feedback to engagement@ieso.ca by May 10, 2024. If you wish to provide confidential feedback, please submit as a separate document, marked "Confidential". Otherwise, to promote transparency, feedback that is not marked "Confidential" will be posted on the engagement webpage.

Topic	Feedback
During the session, the IESO shared a number of proposed guiding principles to help inform Indigenous participation design features under the TSF – Do you have any feedback on the proposed principles (slides 24-25), or responses to the discussion questions posed (slides 26-29)?	See attached pdf
What is the preferred level of prescriptiveness of Indigenous participation design features under the TSF (eg. develop for each procurement under the TSF, or develop overarching policy for all procurements under the TSF)?	See attached pdf
How should the IESO think about timing associated with Indigenous partnerships within a competitive transmission procurement (e.g. Partnerships formed before a bid is submitted, post-bid, or post-energization)?	See attached pdf

Topic	Feedback
What are the barriers to Indigenous communities assessing and understanding participation options for future transmission projects (and how might the IESO help address those barriers)? Are there any other challenges communities have experienced with respect to participating in new electricity projects, or other infrastructure?	See attached pdf

Topic	Feedback
Are communities supportive of an Indigenous Advisory Committee?	Yes everyone needs to lay their cards on the table, work together with the input of First Nations impacted

General Comments/Feedback

Historically we all know the divide and conquer tactics that were utilized in the past, and today we see the repercussions in the communities, now we are being asked to assist and provide feedback and input, well listen and be sincere with your invitations and classifications of what a community engagement entails and what are the repercussions by participating with feedback.
