Technical Panel Comments

There were no comments at Technical Panel related to the proposed market rule amendments on the interests of consumers with respect to prices and the reliability and quality of electricity service.

Stakeholder Comments

There were no comments from stakeholders related to the proposed market rule amendments in relation to reliability and quality of electricity service.

MAG Energy Solutions provided feedback in response to the Technical Panel posting of the proposed market rule amendment. MAG stated that the proposed amendment may not provide any additional value to consumers, as the decrease in the proportion of disbursements going to exporters may reduce the total bids for exports resulting in lower congestion rents and lower total disbursements.

MAG Energy Solutions' feedback can be found on the Technical Panel webpage:
